

The VOOM HDTV satellite service operated on Rainbow 1 is a distinctive service incomparable to its competitors, Echostar and DirectTV. If transfer of the Rainbow assets to a competitor means the VOOM service will be discontinued, then I oppose the transfer. The VOOM high definition content is unique and much higher quality than its competitors. Eliminating it would be anti-competitive.